

About Georgia Frawley

Georgia Frawley has been a Child Development, Careers with Children, and Parenting teacher for 35 years, as well as supervisor of an on-campus daycare center. She was named Educator of the Year for the Rialto Unified School District in 2002. She gained her American Sign Language (ASL) training while working as a dorm counselor at the California School for the Deaf in Riverside. She and her husband saw the correlation of language acquisition and the use of ASL with hearing children while signing with their own children and as a result co-produced with her husband, Ken, the We Sign DVD series, winner of over 50 national awards and co-authored Sign to Speak: Babies Can Talk and Sign to Speak: Toddlers at Play which feature American Sign Language, ASL to enhance early learning and communication. She co-authored Play-Along Songs Volumes 1, 2, and 3 that feature participatory songs to enhance motor skills, support early learning, encourage language development, and provide hours of musical fun. She lectures and provides workshops and programs throughout Southern California and across the United States.

Georgia Frawley presents a variety of programs for children and adults. She has performed for preschool programs, library shows, workshops and at conferences across the United States. Her music programs feature American Sign Language (ASL) and sometimes action songs that support learning. Her programs engage, teach, and are fun for everyone. All the songs she demonstrates and teaches can be reviewed any time after her program on the YouTube Channel – We Play Along. She instructs and demonstrates all the songs in her shows.
